

GENERAL UPDATES

Scholarship Opportunities

- All Transfer Students are now eligible to receive a merit scholarship up to $23,000 annually, with an additional $1,000 available for members of Phi Theta Kappa.

Online Degrees (go.depaul.edu/online)

- DePaul offers 13 online degrees to transfer students, including majors from the School of Continuing and Professional Studies, Communication, Liberal Arts and Social Sciences, Jarvis College of Computing and Digital Media, and the College of Science and Health.

Visit Opportunities (go.depaul.edu/visit)

- Fall Visit Days - Transfer students are invited to our signature Fall Visit Day events on October 11 and November 1. Connect with faculty members from each college, explore our student support offices, and tour DePaul while the leaves are changing!
- Transfer Fridays - Prospective students learn about the transfer process, meet other future transfers, and get a chance to tour the Loop or Lincoln Park campus depending on the day.

ACADEMIC ANNOUNCEMENTS

New Major! Psychology + Economics (BA)

- The College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences (LAS) offers a new major: The Psychology + Economics (PSY+ECO) Bachelor of Arts (BA). This multidisciplinary degree program jointly offered by the Psychology and Economics Departments within the Colleges of Science and Health (CSH) and Liberal Arts and Social Sciences. This program offers students a comprehensive and integrated education in both disciplines, providing the theoretical and methodological tools necessary to analyze human behavior and economic systems from multiple perspectives.

Transfer Honors at DePaul

- The Transfer Honors program at DePaul is an excellent opportunity just for transfers! Students in this program benefit from small class sizes, networking opportunities with like-minded peers, chances to work with faculty, and special cultural events and activities throughout Chicago. Speak with your counselor to learn more about this opportunity!
